NSBE BREAKFAST SEMINAR TO CELEBRATE 23 YEARS OF BLACK EXCELLENCE

The National Society of Black Engineers ("NSBE") is pleased to announce that we will be celebrating 23 years of black excellence in engineering on Friday 18 June 2021 at Courtyard Hotel, Waterfall City, Midrand.

The Honourable Minister of Human Settlements, Water & Sanitation – Ms. Lindiwe Sisulu – will be the key note speaker to address our members on the "Role of Local Engineers in the National Water & Sanitation Master Plan Execution". NSBE members are looking forward to having a meaningful and constructive engagement with the Minister. All Covid-19 level 3 lockdown safety protocols will be strictly adhered to.

Kind Regards,

Mdu Mlaba

President
